

INTER-OFFICE MEMORANDUM

CITY OF HARRISBURG

March 8, 2016

TO: Bruce Weber, Finance Director
Bureau of Financial Management

FROM: Charlie DeBrunner, Controller
Office of the Controller

SUBJECT: Pennsylvania Treasury-Unclaimed Property Search

As you may be aware, the Pennsylvania Treasury's Bureau of Unclaimed Property is responsible for collecting, holding, and disbursing property and funds that have not been claimed or cashed by the payee. After a certain period of dormancy, payers of these financial obligations are required to turn over those outstanding obligations to the state as escheat property.

Any individual or business can do an escheat property search on the Pennsylvania Treasury's Unclaimed Property website to see if they have anything being held under their name. My office has done this for the payee search terms "Harrisburg" and "City Treasurer". The corresponding results are attached and highlighted in yellow.

I recommend that appropriate staff be assigned the task of following up on the attached items and completing the necessary claim forms in order to have the property returned to the city. Additionally, I would recommend Financial Management staff establish a policy to periodically (annually) search for escheated property in the city's name.

Thank you.

Accounts appearing on this page will remain visible and claimable even after a claim has been initiated. The property will be removed from the Web site once Treasury has received sufficient documentation to prove entitlement.

To learn more about an account and how to claim it, check the box next to the name and then press 'Request Claim Form'. The rows are color coded to assist in your claim inquiry as single and joint owner properties may not be combined on a claim inquiry form.

Green rows show properties where you must contact the office to determine eligibility.

White rows show single owner property records, click on those that you are entitled to claim.

Gray rows show joint owner property records, click on those that you are entitled to claim.

Accounts appearing on this page will remain visible and claimable even after a claim has been initiated. The property will be removed from the Web site once Treasury has received sufficient documentation to prove entitlement.

To learn more about an account and how to claim it, check the box next to the name and then press 'Request Claim Form'. The rows are color coded to assist in your claim inquiry as single and joint owner properties may not be combined on a claim inquiry form.

Green rows show properties where you must contact the office to determine eligibility.

White rows show single owner property records, click on those that you are entitled to claim.

Gray rows show joint owner property records, click on those that you are entitled to claim.
